STORIES ABOUT JESUS

The stories in Book Two told you about The God of Truth and His Promise to our first parents. They also told you the reason why God's Own Beloved Son came to live upon this earth.

And now would you like to know about
GOD'S OWN BELOVED SON AS A LITTLE BABY?

Would you like to know more about His life
WHEN HE GREW TO BE A MAN?

And would you like to know what He did
TO PROVE THAT HE IS GOD?

The stories in Book Three will tell you
THE ANSWERS TO THESE QUESTIONS.

Approved by the National Center of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine

ONE of the best gifts that God gives to every child is a mother. And God wanted His Own Son to have a lovely Mother.

The name of the one whom God wanted to be the Mother of His Own Son was Mary. And God sent a messenger TO TELL THE LOVELY, HOLY MARY THAT HE WANTED HER TO BE THE MOTHER OF HIS OWN SON.

The messenger also told Mary that God wanted His Own Son called JESUS.

The messenger was a bright and beautiful angel.

We do not see angels. But God let Mary

JESUS'
MOTHER

see the angel who brought His message to her.

From the angel's message Mary knew that God wanted His Own Beloved Son to come to earth as a little Baby and to live upon the earth as other people live.

Mary was sure that if God's Own Son came to this earth as one of us, He would offer to His Father, for us,

GREAT LOVE AND OBEDIENCE.

He would more than make up for the failure in love and obedience of Adam and all the other people belonging to Adam's family, from the beginning to the end of the world.

She was sure, too, that God's Own

Son would leave a SURE WAY, "A HOLY WAY," "A STRAIGHT WAY" for all people to have God's Love and Truth in them.

And she remembered what the holy man had said about ONE CHILD Who would some time be born and Who would be "THE PRINCE OF PEACE" and "WONDERFUL."

From the very beginning of her life, Mary was filled with God's Love and Truth.

She always wanted whatever was most pleasing to God. And she made the angel understand that, if God wanted it, she was happy to be the Mother of His Own Son.

The Story Told by a Daisy

Draw a daisy with six petals on a piece of heavy white paper.

Color the center of the daisy yellow.

Cut out the daisy.

Write the answer to each question on one of the white petals.

When you have finished, ask someone at home if the answers are right.

Then paste the daisy in your notebook or put it in your room near the statue of Jesus' Mother.

PRAYER

When we pray we talk to someone.

We show that we love this one.

We ask this one to help us.

Here is a prayer which you should say every morning and every evening — to talk to The Mother of God's Own Son, to show her that you love her, and to ask her to pray for you.

The Hail Mary

HAIL MARY, full of grace, the Lord is with thee; blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus.

Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

Project Work

Find some pictures of Jesus' Mother.

Paste them in your First Communion Notebook or on project pages. And under the pictures write some sentences telling about Jesus' Mother.

MARY knew from the angel's message that God's Own Son was coming to this earth as a little Baby.

COME TO THIS EARTH AS A LITTLE

His birthday is called CHRISTMAS.

He did not come to a rich and beautiful home. He came to a cave which was used as a stable for animals.

And this is the story of His coming.

The Roman governor was making a list of all the people in the country. And Mary and Joseph had come to Bethlehem to have their names written on the governor's list.

As many other people had come to Bethlehem, there was not a house in the town where Mary could stay for the night.

This cave was the only place Joseph could find for her.

And at night when the cave was very dark and still, God's Own Son came to this earth. Then the singing of angels was heard and the cave became bright and beautiful.

Mary and Joseph both knew that The Baby was God's Own Son.

And they knew that the whole world would be different because this little Baby had come to live in it.

They knew that He had come to give God's Love and Truth to the whole world.

They knelt upon the floor of the cave.

They were the very first to give The Baby Jesus their love.

Prayer to the Baby Jesus

DEAR Baby Jesus, I will shut my eyes and make believe that I am kneeling on the floor of the cave with Mary and Joseph. For I wish that I could have been there that night to give You my love.

MAKING SACRIFICES

The Baby Jesus had very few things. He was poor.

We shall be more like The Baby Jesus if we do not want too many things.

So, at times we can go without something we like very much, just to show that we want to be more like The One Who loved us so much.

When we do this, we make a sacrifice.

Perhaps you would like to make these sacrifices or some others:

. . . You can go without some of your play to do something which you think would please your mother.

. . . When you feel like being cross, you can say or do something kind.

. . . When you feel like eating more cake or candy or something else that you like, you can refuse to take it when it is passed to you.

Paste a picture of The Baby Jesus in your First Communion Notebook or on a project page. Under it write the prayer on page 11.

"W HILE all things were in quiet silence," Jesus was born.

Some shepherds were keeping the night watch over their flocks near Bethlehem. Angels let them know that God's Own Son had come to live upon this earth. Then they left their sheep and came hurrying across the hills to the cave. They knelt and gave The Baby Jesus their love.

Then they went back to take care of their sheep and told all the people they met that God's Own Son had come to earth.

The Baby Jesus had visitors from far away as well as from Bethlehem.

Some wise men, called Magi, who liked

BABY
JESUS'
VISITORS

to study the stars, lived a long way from Bethlehem. One night they saw a new star in the sky. This star was brighter than the other stars and different from any star that they had ever seen.

These wise men had heard that God's Own Son would come some day to live upon this earth. When they saw this bright new star, they were sure that the time had come.

Three of these men started out on the long journey across the desert to find the place where God's Own Son was living. They rode on camels.

The bright new star moved in the sky and showed them the way. But when they came to Jerusalem, they could not see the star, so they asked King Herod if he could tell them the way to go.

Before they left the king, they learned that The One for Whom they had come across the desert was living in Bethlehem. And when they started toward Bethlehem, they saw the star again. It went before them until it came to the place where The Baby Jesus was.

“And entering into the house,” they knelt and gave The Baby Jesus their love.

They also gave Him beautiful gifts which they had brought with them from their own country.

Tell this story to some other children.

THE HOLY FAMILY

PAGE 18

WE CALL Jesus, Mary and Joseph
The Holy Family.

After the Magi had visited the Holy Family and were on their way back to their own country, God sent an angel to let Saint Joseph know that the wicked King Herod would try to kill The Baby Jesus. Then during the night Saint Joseph took The Child and His Mother out of their own country into another country called Egypt.

This cruel king wanted to kill The Baby Jesus because he was afraid that when The Baby Jesus was older, the people would make Him their King.

But Herod wanted to keep on being king until the end of his life. After that, he wanted his son to be king. So he had the soldiers kill many children, hoping that one of them might be The Baby Jesus.

The Holy Family lived in Egypt until Saint Joseph knew that it would be safe to bring The Baby Jesus back to His Own country.

Tell someone at home why The Holy Family hurried into Egypt.

WHEN The Holy Family left Egypt and came back into their own country, they lived for many years in a little village called Nazareth.

STORY OF JESUS'
LIFE

And Jesus made Mary and Joseph very happy by His obedience and love.

At that time only a few people knew that Jesus was The Son of God.

But when Jesus was thirty years old, He went from place to place teaching the people about The One True God.

And He let them know that He was God's Own Son.

Fathers and mothers brought their children to Him so that He would bless them.

And many people followed Him from place to place, because they wanted to hear more and more of God's Truth, and also because He did many good things for them. He made sick people well. He even made some people who were dead come back to life.

JESUS TAUGHT TRUTH AND HE DID EVERYTHING WITH LOVE.

For He was God's Own Son. And you know that God is All-Truth and All-Love.

"A STORY about God's Own Son," which you read in Book Two, told you that wicked men wanted Jesus put to death so that He could not teach the people the truth any more.

These wicked men were very cruel to

JESUS'
CRUEL
DEATH

Jesus and at last they made Him carry a big, heavy cross and nailed Him to it.

Jesus' Mother, Mary, stood by The Cross until Jesus died.

Two thieves were dying on crosses near Jesus.

After a while one thief believed that Jesus was God's Own Son. And when this thief looked at Jesus, he was sorry for the bad things he had done.

He spoke to Jesus and said:

"Lord, remember me when Thou shalt come into Thy kingdom."

Then Jesus promised the thief that He would take him to be happy with Him forever in HEAVEN.

For HEAVEN is the name of Jesus' kingdom.

In the story, "The First Man and Woman," which you read in Book Two, you learned that our first parents did not give to God the love and obedience they knew they should give to Him.

They turned away from God.

The story, "God's Promise," which is also in Book Two, told you about GOD'S GREAT PROMISE. And you will remember that God's Great Promise was that He would send Someone to live upon this earth Who would give Him GREATER love and obedience than anyone else could give.

Jesus'
Mother,
Mary,
Stood by the Cross

Now you know from several stories that Jesus, God's Own Beloved Son, offered to His Father, love and obedience, "EVEN TO THE DEATH OF THE CROSS."

For Jesus lived and suffered and died to give to His Father so much love and obedience that He would more than make up in love and obedience of Adam and all the other people belonging to Adam's family from the beginning to the end of the world.
FOR THE FAILURE

All the other people who ever had lived or ever would live in the world could not give to God as much love and obedience as Jesus gave.

For we must always remember that Jesus was God's Own Beloved Son.

And Jesus wanted all of us to be His Father's very dear children.

For He wanted all of us to do as He did and offer to His Father ALL THE LOVE
AND OBEDIENCE in our power.

Book Four will tell you about the sure way, "the holy way," "the straight way" that Jesus left so that we may have God's Love and Truth in us.

THE
WHICH
TAUGHT US

ONE day Jesus' friends saw Him praying. When Jesus' prayer was finished, one of them said to Him:

"Lord, teach us to pray."

Then Jesus taught them this prayer:

The Lord's Prayer

OUR Father who art in heaven,
Hallowed be Thy Name,
Thy kingdom come,
Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive
Those who trespass against us,
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil.
Amen.

Ask your father or mother to hear you say this prayer every morning and evening.

THAT JESUS
IS GOD

THE people could see that Jesus was a man.

But some did not believe that He was also God.

So Jesus proved to the people that He was God.

For HE ROSE FROM THE DEAD.

And no one but Jesus had the power to rise from the dead.

Jesus died on a Friday.

He was put in a tomb. A big stone was rolled against the door. Soldiers stood outside. They were left there to watch the tomb and to be sure that no one moved the stone.

But on Sunday morning, when Jesus' friends came to visit the tomb, they saw that the stone had been rolled back!

The soldiers were not there!

So Jesus' friends went into the tomb.

They were looking for the Body of Jesus.

But they did not find the Body of Jesus!

They were surprised, and wondered where Jesus' Body could be.

And, behold! They saw two shining angels standing near them.

They bowed very low.

Then they heard the angels saying:

“Remember
How He Spoke unto You”

“He is not here, but risen.

Remember how He spoke unto you . . .

Saying:

The Son of Man must be . . .

crucified

And the third day rise again.”

‘ ‘ ‘

Then Jesus’ friends remembered that Jesus HAD TOLD the people that He would rise from the dead.

The angels’ message filled them with great joy.

And they went quickly away to tell Jesus’ other friends what had happened.

AFTER Jesus had risen from the dead, many of His friends saw Him and talked with Him.

Jesus stayed upon this earth forty days.
He did not die again.

But one day while His friends were with Him, He told them that He was going to leave them to go back to His Father in heaven.

Then, they saw Him, RISING BY HIS OWN POWER.

And they watched Him until the clouds hid Him from their sight.

THEY WATCHED
JESUS
ASCEND
HEAVEN

Tell someone at home the story of how Jesus rose from the dead and stayed forty days upon this earth. And ask someone at home to tell you the names given to:
the day Jesus died,
the day Jesus rose from the dead,
the day Jesus went back to His Father in heaven.

Can you answer these questions?

1. What did Jesus' friends say to Him one day when they saw Him praying?
2. On what day did Jesus die?
3. After Jesus was dead, where was His Body laid?
4. Who watched outside of Jesus' tomb?
5. On what day did Jesus rise from the dead?
6. How do we know that Jesus rose from the dead?
7. On what day did Jesus go back to His Father in heaven?

Project Work

1. Draw seven circles in your First Communion Notebook or on project pages. Color the circles. Or cut from paper seven circles of different colors.

Write the answer to each of the seven questions in a circle.

2. Find a picture of Jesus on the Cross, a picture of Jesus after He had risen from the dead, and a picture of Jesus going back to His Father in heaven. Paste these pictures in your First Communion Notebook or on project pages. Write, under each picture, what the picture shows.

A Play

What to use for the play:

Which door of this room shall we call the door of the tomb?

What shall we use for the big stone?

What can the soldiers carry for swords?

How shall we know the angel?

What to do:

Act 1

The Soldiers:

Watch the tomb.

See the stone rolled away by an angel.

Run away frightened.

Jesus' Friends:

Hurry to the tomb.

Show surprise.

Look sad because The Body of Jesus is not there.

Act 2

The Angels:

Speak to Jesus' friends as the angels do in the story.

Jesus' Friends:

Listen to the angels.

Show great joy.

One friend tells the others that Jesus did say that He would rise from the dead.

All hurry away to tell the others the joyous news.

In the greatest of Jesus' Commandments He tells us that we should FIRST OF ALL

And this means that we should love God more than anyone or anything else.

Jesus' Second Great Commandment of Love

Jesus tells us that we should love all people — those who are good to us and those who are not good to us. For at the very same time that He gave us His First Great Commandment, He also gave us the Second Great Commandment:

“LOVE THY NEIGHBOR AS THYSELF.”

And He said at another time,

“Love One Another
As I Have Loved You.”

The Ten Commandments are:

7. Thou shalt not steal.
8. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.
